“As Vistage members we seek to develop our leadership virtuosity to be the best we can be in order to make a positive contribution to our organizations, community and world. Becoming masterful involves making learning a practice and staying on the path. Every once in a while there is a rare opportunity to learn from others who are further down the path and accelerate our development exponentially. I am delighted that Vistage has partnered with Stanford University with its world-renowned highly ranked executive education program. This is one of those opportunities for the few who want to go further and faster.”

“How often are we asked by members to suggest a resource for developing expertise in ingenuity, creativity, and innovative problem solving? Now, Vistage has partnered with Stanford University to bring this resource to our members in the Tri-State area. We get to nominate the members who will be part of the 10-month program: Leadership in Innovation, taught by world-renowned Stanford Business School Professors who specialize in this field. What an amazing opportunity for all our members and us, the Chairs.”
